I am a very friendly, polite hard working young person who can work well either alone or in a team. I listen well to people and instructions that I am given. I am always passionate about what I do - 100% is always put in to my work. I have very good skills in English, good communicating skills as I used to do trainings in my previous job for a big audience of my new hires. I am a quick learner, self confident and self motivated as well as optimistic personality that is always ready for challenges.
